

Letter of motivation

Your letter of motivation is an important part of your application. It should give a brief and concise outline of your previous career, your research interests, as well as your motivation for the intended research project.

Format and length: PDF format with a maximum length of 500 words (corresponding to about 1 A4 page)

In your letter of motivation, you should address the following aspects:

- Your previous academic and professional career, as well as any special qualifications and previous experience relevant for the research project
- Please outline to what extent your intended doctoral project relates to the academic thematic focus at the faculty/department.
- How do you justify your choice of supervisor(s)?
